Consequences for Activities in Violation of this Policy; Rights of KFN

- Suspension and Termination. KFN has the right, in its sole discretion, with or without notice, to suspend or terminate a Customer's account when it engages in any conduct that violates the KFN Customer Agreement (which includes this AUP). In most cases, KFN will notify you regarding an alleged violation of the AUP, however, to protect KFN's network and its other Customers, KFN reserves the right to block Users first and subsequently make contact thereafter. You agree to promptly investigate all such complaints and take all necessary actions to remedy violations of this AUP. KFN may inform the party submitting a complaint that the target User is investigating the complaint and may provide the complaining party with the necessary information to contact User directly to resolve the matter. KFN also reserves the right to cancel e-mail messages and/or restrict the size of e-mail distribution lists.
- Removal of Materials. KFN reserves the right to take down any material, or otherwise block access thereto, that has been created or is otherwise accessible through the Services and to suspend any Users creating, storing or disseminating such material when KFN becomes aware that the material violates this AUP and/or exposes KFN to civil or criminal liability, including without limitation, under applicable copyright laws. KFN reserves the right to avail itself to the safe harbor provisions of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998 ("DMCA").
- Charges. Users agree to be responsible and pay for any activities that result in damages and/or administrative costs to KFN or other Users. These damages include, but are not limited to, the following: system shut downs, retaliatory attacks or data flooding, and loss of peering arrangements. Damages may include the following:

- Legal fees, subject to a minimum fee of $500
- Activation fee or further deposits to reconnect suspended services
- Unsolicited bulk e-mail (spam clean-up): A User may be charged $300 + $5 per message sent + $100 per complaint received by KFN.

KFN also reserves the right to modify its rates at any time and from time-to-time through a revision to this AUP.

Cooperation with Legal Authorities

KFN reserves the right to cooperate with legal authorities and third parties in the investigation of any alleged wrongdoing related to this AUP, including disclosure of the identity of Users that KFN deems responsible for the wrongdoing. KFN will not be liable for any damages of any nature suffered by any Users, or any third party resulting in whole or in part from KFN's exercise of its rights under this AUP.

Installation of Equipment

KFN reserves the right to install and use, or to require Users to install and use, appropriate devices to prevent violations of this AUP, including devices designated to filter or terminate access to the Services. By accepting and using the Services, Users consent to allowing KFN to collect service information and routing information in the normal course of its business, and to use such information for general business purposes. Users may not use the Services to monitor any data, information or communications on any network or system without KFN's prior written authorization. In addition, Users may not attempt to gain unauthorized access to the accounts of other Users.

Responsibility for Content

KFN takes no responsibility for any material created or accessible on or through the Services and will not exercise any editorial control over any such material. KFN is not obligated to monitor such material, but reserves the right to do so at any time.

Copyright Complaints

The DMCA provides recourse for owners of copyrighted material who believe their rights under U.S. copyright law have been infringed. If a party believes that KFN has infringed its copyrighted work in a way that does not fall within the applicable DMCA safe harbor provision, please provide notice to our Designated Copyright Agent at the address listed below. As required by the DMCA (17 U.S.C. 512 (c)(3)), the notice must include the information listed below. In addition, the notice should include the basis for the belief that KFN is not merely providing transitory digital communications under 17 U.S.C. 512 (a) of the DMCA:

- a physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed;
- identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a singled notification, a representative list of such works at that site;

- identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit KFN to locate the material;
- information reasonably sufficient to permit KFN to contact the complaining party, such as address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted;
- a statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and
- a statement that the information in the notification is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
